2D SESSION

H. R. 6990

To direct the Secretary of Veterans Affairs to conduct a study on the effect of financial and credit counseling for housing unstable veterans.

---

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MAY 22, 2020

Mr. PALLONE (for himself and Mr. ROSE of New York) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Veterans' Affairs

---

A BILL

To direct the Secretary of Veterans Affairs to conduct a study on the effect of financial and credit counseling for housing unstable veterans.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Homeless Veterans
5 Credit Repair, Enhancement, and Debt Improvement for 6 Tomorrow Act” or the “Homeless Veterans CREDIT
7 Act”.

8 SEC. 2. STUDY ON FINANCIAL AND CREDIT COUNSELING.

9       (a) STUDY REQUIRED.—The Secretary of Veterans
10 Affairs shall conduct a comprehensive study on—

1                             (1) the use of and variation of financial and
2 credit counseling services available for housing un-
3 stable veterans;

4                             (2) barriers to accessing financial and credit
5 counseling for housing unstable veterans; and

6                             (3) the ability to evaluate and assess the poten-
7 tial effects of financial and credit counseling for 8 housing unstable veterans with respect to housing,
9 employment, income, and other outcomes the Sec-
10 retary determines appropriate.

11                         (b) METHODOLOGY.—In conducting the study under 12 subsection (a), the Secretary shall—

13                             (1) survey—

14                                 (A) housing unstable veterans who are en-
15 rolled in the Supportive Services for Veterans
16 Families program;

17                                 (B) housing unstable veterans who do not 18 seek or receive the care or services under such 19 program or a similar program;

20                                 (C) grantees of the Supportive Services for
21 Veterans Families program;

22                                 (D) financial and credit counselors; and

23                                 (E) persons who are subject matter experts
24 regarding the use of financial and credit coun-

1           seling services that the Secretary determines
2           appropriate; and

3           (2) administer the survey to a representative
4           sample of housing unstable veterans and veterans in 5           areas with high veteran homelessness.

6           (c) USE AND VARIATION OF SERVICES.—In con-
7           ducting the study under subsection (a)(1), the Secretary
8           shall—

9           (1) use data from the Supportive Services for 10          Veterans Families program and other data collected
11          by the Department of Veterans Affairs, data col-
12          lected by other departments or agencies of the Fed-
13          eral Government, and data collected by nongovern-
14          mental entities to compare the use of and variation
15          of financial and credit counseling services available
16          for housing unstable veterans and such use and vari-
17          ation for other individuals; and

18           (2) assess such services made available through
19          the Supportive Services for Veterans Families pro-
20          gram, including with respect to the types, modes of 21          delivery, duration, consistency, and quality, of such 22          services.

23           (d) BARRIERS TO COUNSELING.—In conducting the 24          study under subsection (a)(2), the Secretary shall conduct
25          research on the effects of the following perceived barriers

1 to financial and credit counseling for housing unstable veterans surveyed in the study:

3 (1) The cost of financial and credit counseling services.

5 (2) The perceived stigma associated with seeking financial and credit counseling assistance.

7 (3) The effect of driving distance or availability
8 of other forms of transportation to the nearest facility that received a grant under the Supportive Services for Veterans Families program.

10 (4) The availability of child care.

12 (5) The comprehension of eligibility requirements for, and the scope of services available under, the Supportive Services for Veterans Families program.

16 (6) The effectiveness of outreach for the services available to housing unstable veterans under the Supportive Services for Veterans Families program.

19 (7) The location and operating hours of facilities that provide services to housing unstable veterans under the Supportive Services for Veterans Families program.

23 (8) The COVID–19 pandemic and other health related issues.

(9) Such other significant barriers as the Secretary considers appropriate.

3       (e) EVALUATION AND ASSESSMENT OF EFFECTS OF 4 COUNSELING.—

19 (C) The effects of such services on income
20 by comparing the veterans who received such 21 services and the veterans who did not receive
22 such services.

23 (D) The effects of such services on credit
24 score by comparing the veterans who received

1           such services and the veterans who did not re-
2           ceive such services.

3           (E) The effects of such services on other
4           outcomes the Secretary determines appropriate.

5           (2) DATA AND RECOMMENDATIONS.—In car-
6           rying out paragraph (1), the Secretary shall—

7               (A) determine the relevant data that is 8               available to the Secretary and determine the 9               confidence of the Secretary with respect to ac-
10              cessing any additional data the Secretary may 11              require; and

12              (B) provide recommendations regarding 13              the optimal research or evaluation design that 14              would generate the greatest insights and value.

15           (f) DISCHARGE BY CONTRACT.—The Secretary may 16           seek to enter into a contract with a qualified independent 17           entity or organization to carry out the study and research 18           required under this section, including such an entity or 19           organization that is able to access credit scores, data
20           maintained by the Internal Revenue Service, and other
21           data beneficial to studying income.

22           (g) MANDATORY REVIEW OF DATA BY CERTAIN
23           ELEMENTS OF DEPARTMENT.—

24               (1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall ensure 25              that the head of each element of the Department of

1       Veterans Affairs specified in paragraph (2) reviews
2       the results of the study conducted under subsection
3       (a). The head of each such element shall submit to 4       the Deputy Under Secretary for Health for Oper-
5       ations and Management the findings of the head
6       with respect to the study, including recommenda-
7       tions regarding what data the Secretary should col-
8       lect from grantees under the Supportive Services for
9       Veterans Families program.

10                     (2) SPECIFIED ELEMENTS.—The elements of 11       the Department of Veterans Affairs specified in this 12       paragraph are the following:

13                     (A) The Advisory Committee on Homeless
14       Veterans established under section 2066 of title
15       38, United States Code.

16                     (B) The Advisory Committee on Women
17       Veterans established under section 542 of title
18       38, United States Code.

19                     (C) The Advisory Committee on Minority
20       Veterans established under section 544 of title
21       38, United States Code.

22                     (D) The Homeless Programs Office of the 23       Veterans Health Administration.

24                     (E) The Office of Tribal Government Rela-
25       tions of the Department.

1           (h) REPORTS.—

2           (1) INTERIM REPORT.—Not later than one year
3           after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Sec-
4           retary shall submit to Congress an interim report on 5           the study under subsection (a).

6           (2) FINAL REPORT.—Not later than 30 months
7           after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Sec-
8           retary shall submit to Congress a report on the 9           study under subsection (a). The report shall in-
10          clude—

11           (A) the findings of the head of each ele-
12           ment of the Department specified under sub-
13           section (g)(2); and

14           (B) recommendations for such administra-
15           tive and legislative action as the Secretary con-
16           siders appropriate.

17           (i) DEFINITION.—In this section:

18           (1) The term “housing unstable veteran” means
19           a veteran that is without a permanent place to live
20           that is fit for human habitation.

21           (2) The term “Supportive Services for Veterans
22           Families program” means the program established
23           pursuant to section 2044 of title 38, United States
24           Code.
